

Eight Sticks

Arrange all eight sticks (four of them being exactly half the length of the others) to form three squares, all of the same size. The sticks may overlap, but there must be no loose ends hanging over.

Source: Amusements in Mathematics by Henry Ernest Dudeney