

Broken Circles Reflection

What do you think this exercise was all about?

What things did your group do that helped solve the problem?

What things did your group do that made it harder?

What could your group do better in the future?